

The National Alliance for Public Safety GIS Foundation and ESRI

Public Safety GIS User Group Workshop Mid-West Region

June 24-25, 2010

Memorial Institute for the Prevention of Terrorism

Oklahoma City, OK

co-hosted with:

AGENDA

June 24, 2010

8:00-9:00am – Registration & Breakfast (Catered-In)

9:00-9:30am – Welcome & Orientation (PUG Leadership Team - Robert Doke, Oklahoma State Fire Marshal; Tom Casady, Police Chief, Lincoln Police Department; Jon Hansen, Executive Director, Oklahoma Council on Firefighter Training)

9:30-10:15am – Introduction & Overview to GIS for Public Safety -
(Jim Smalley, NAPSG Foundation Board of Directors & Jennifer Schottke, ESRI)

10:15am-11:45pm – Presentations on State and National Initiatives

- GIS Use in the State Emergency Operations Center and Access to Resources for County Public Safety. (Alden Graybill, Oklahoma Office of Emergency Management)

- Virtual USA Initiative – Models for Daily Operations & Major Events. (US Department of Homeland Security, Science & Technology Directorate – Kathleen Higgins & Charlee Hess)

11:45-12:00pm – Moderated Discussion - Values & Benefits to Local, County & State Agency Efforts (Jim Smalley, NAPSG Foundation & Jennifer Schottke, ESRI)

12:00-1:00pm – Lunch (Catered-In)

1:00-2:00pm – Statewide Approaches for Accurate Base Map Data & Lessons Learned in Leveraging One Map for Public Safety Across Multiple Levels of Government
(Skip Parker, Manager of Government Solutions, Navteq)

2:00-4:00pm – Voices of Experience - Presentations on GIS Uses

- Emergency Management Use of GIS for Preparedness, Response & Recovery.
(Sara Cobb, GIS Manager, Edmond Oklahoma)

- Law Enforcement Uses & Operational Values of GIS
(Tom Casady, Police Chief, Lincoln Police Department, Nebraska)

4:00-4:15pm – Wrap-Up and Review of Day 2 Agenda (PUG Leadership & Jim Smalley)

4:15pm – Optional – Tour of the Oklahoma City Ground Zero Site at the Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum. Museum is part of MIPT. Jon Hansen (PUG Leadership & Executive Director, Oklahoma Council on Firefighter Training) will lead the tour. Jon was the Fire Chief of the Oklahoma City Fire Department during the bombing.

June 25, 2010

8:30-9:00am - Registration & Breakfast (Catered-In)

9:00am – Welcome (PUG Leadership Team)

9:00-9:30am – Keynote Remarks

Representative Jason Murphey – Value of GIS for the Advancement of Regional Public Safety

9:30-9:45am – Recap from Day 1 & Overview of Day 2 (Jim Smalley)

9:45-11:30am – Breakout Session - GIS Use Case Scenarios

Track 1 – Fire, EMS, Emergency Management

- GIS for Preplanning & Tactical Response for Fire Service

(Mark Voyles, Technology Coordinator, Edmond Fire Department, OK)

Track 2 – Law Enforcement & Homeland Security

- GIS for Proactive Law Enforcement - Place-Based Policing & Crime Analysis

(Tom Casady, Police Chief, Lincoln Police Department, NE)

11:30am-12:00pm – Report Back from Breakout Sessions & Discussion

12:00 -1:00pm – Lunch (Catered-In)

1:00 – 3:00pm – Inter-disciplinary Concepts for Public Safety GIS Use

- GIS for County Emergency Management & E-911/Dispatch (Sherry Massey, GIS Coordinator, Dickinson County, KS)

- NFPA DAT Committee & NAPSG Foundation Overview

(Jim Smalley & Jennifer Schottke)

- Potential Use of GIS for Fire Prevention Assessment & Strategy

(Tom Hughes, Fire Protection Publications, Oklahoma State University)

3:00-3:30pm – Roundtable of Updates from Participants (All – Come prepared to give a 5 minute lightning talk about your agency's GIS initiative)

3:30pm – Final Wrap-Up (PUG Leadership Team, Jim Smalley & Jennifer Schottke)

This event is made possible by the National Alliance for Public Safety GIS Foundation and ESRI

