

The National Alliance for Public Safety GIS
Foundation and ESRI present

Public Safety GIS User Group
OH, IL, MI

June 21 & 22, 2010
Seagate Convention Center
Toledo, OH
co-hosted with:

AGENDA

June 21, 2010

8:30-9:00 am Registration & Breakfast

9:00-9:15 am Welcome, Toledo Mayor Mike Bell (former State of OH Fire Marshal and Toledo Fire Chief)

9:15-9:45 am Introductions & Overview to GIS for Public Safety, PUG Leadership Team
Jim Smalley, NAPSG Board of Directors, and Jennifer Schottke, ESRI

9:45-11:30 am User Presentations

- GIS Initiatives in the Michigan State Emergency Operations Center
An overview of GIS efforts at the state level, Michelle Kleckler, GIS Manager, Michigan State Police, Emergency Management & Homeland Security
- Interactive Web-based Incident Mapping and other Sheriff Department Applications
Ottawa County, MI publishes local crime data to inform the public, Patrick Lowman
Ottawa County GIS Department
- The International Charter: space data resources for disaster response. Availability of satellite and remote sensing data to support disaster response. Dick Kotapish, GISP, Lake County, OH

11:30 – 12:00 noon - Local public safety GIS in action (a preview of day 2 hands on sessions)

- a. GIS support for Regional (Type 3) Incident Management Teams: CSX Rail incident case study. Dick Kotapish, GISP, Lake County, OH
- b. Adobe Flex Framework and ArcGIS Online for Dayton, OH Crime Incidents, Jason Errett, Dayton Police Department

12:00-12:30 pm – NFPA DAT Committee & NAPSG Foundation Overview and moderated discussion of morning sessions, Jim Smalley

12:30-1:30 pm - lunch

1:30-2:00 pm ESRI Public Safety Technology Briefing, Jeff Baranyi & Jennifer Schottke, ESRI

2:00-2:45 pm Public Safety GIS: Leveraging the Enterprise to support fire department workflows, Patricia Lankey and Dave Dauer, City of Toledo with ESRI staff

2:45 Break

3:00–3:30 pm Utilizing GIS to Improve Fire Department Efficiency, David Schmidt, Elgin Fire Department

3:30 – 4:00 Local User Roundtable

- An open roundtable for updates from users around the region. Come prepared to share with the group about your public safety GIS projects during this open mic session/discussion time.

4:00 pm – Wrap-Up from Day 1 and Review of Day 2 Agenda, PUG Leadership Team

June 22, 2010

8:30-9:00am Registration & Breakfast

9:00-9:30am Opening Remarks – and Recap of Day 1, Jim Smalley and Leadership Team

9:30-12:00 noon: Morning Breakout Sessions

Track One: (Fire/EMS): Hands on Training (Mark Hollingshead, ESRI St. Louis)

- Map Book creation
- Digital Pegboard

Track Two: (multi-disciplinary coordination):

- Workshop (part 1) on developing GIS protocols and guidelines for Type 3 All Hazard Incident Management Teams, Dick Kotapish, GISP, Lake County, OH and Wendy Kallios, ESRI

12:00 -1:00pm Lunch

1:00 - 3:00pm Afternoon Breakout Sessions

Track One: (Law): Technical Session on implementing a free common operating picture.

- How to leverage the power of the free Adobe Flex Framework and ArcGIS Online, Jason Errett, Dayton Police Department

Track Two: (multi-disciplinary coordination):

- Workshop (part 2) on developing GIS protocols and guidelines for Type 3 All Haz Incident Management Teams, Dick Kotapish, GISP, Lake County, OH and Wendy Kallios, ESRI

3:00 - 4:00pm Reports from Breakout Sessions and Open Discussion of Issues, Jim Smalley

4:30pm Final Remarks and wrap up (PUG Leadership Team)