

2016 National Geospatial Preparedness Summit

Travel Scholarship Application

Scholarship Program Intent: NAPSG is pleased to offer a limited number of travel scholarships to support participation by local, state, and tribal practitioners in the 2016 National Geospatial Preparedness Summit (NGPS). The Summit will be held on September 13th & 14th in Washington, DC.

The NGPS Scholarship Program is intended to aid practitioners who would not be able to attend otherwise due to lack of travel funding. Scholarship applications will be reviewed on a bi-weekly basis, and all applicants will be notified as to whether their application has been accepted or denied.

Applicant Eligibility: Scholarship applicants must be active-duty local, state, or tribal public safety or GIS practitioners. An applicant must officially represent a local or state government agency or tribal organization. Public safety refers to, but is not limited to: fire service, emergency medical services, law enforcement, search & rescue, emergency management, 911 dispatch, public health, animal emergency response, mass care, and fusion centers. Eligible applicants must be more than 100 miles from Washington, DC.

Eligible Expenses: The NGPS Scholarship Program will provide a $500 scholarship that can be used for any travel expense, which will be sent to recipients within 30 days after the Summit.

Deadline: Send your completed scholarship application to Summit@publicsafetygis.org by May 27, 2016.
